

Year:	1	Unit:	Islam How might beliefs about creation affect the way people treat the world?
What will I learn this year? • That Muslims believe in one God (Allah) • That Muslims believe the world was created by God • Why Muslims might value the natural world • That Islam teaches that humans should be caretakers (stewards/Khalifahs) of the planet • Muslims might show respect for God by caring for the natural world • Talk about their own experiences and feelings about the natural world and what they have noticed about the way that humans treat it • Reflect on how they treat the natural world – and if they have a duty to look after it
Key Vocabulary		What should I already know?
Khalifah- caretaker of our planet Allah- The one God who Muslims believe in. Respect- showing care for something Prophet- A prophet is someone who speaks for God on Earth		• Muslim's believe Allah created the world. • Allah's creation must be treated with care. • Muslim's follow the Prophet Muhammad's example and treat the world and animals with care.
		What will I learn next?
		• Why Muslims believe that it is important to respect God • Why Muslims would want to show their gratitude to God • That submission to God is an important aspect of Islamic life • Identify that Islamic beliefs about God motivate most Muslims to pray on a regular basis • The rituals of Islamic prayer (salah), including wudhu and use of a prayer mat • How making time for the five daily prayers is an act of submission • The ways in which shared rituals might unite communities (make links with the way that the Islamic community – the Ummah – is united by prayer) • Identify ways in which humans show their gratitude • Talk about the things they do on a regular basis as a sign of their commitment and belonging • Reflect on who they should be grateful to and how they show this	