

Use the frame below to create your own poster about internet safety.

A large rectangular frame for a poster. On the left side, there is a vertical column of five boxes, each containing a letter. The letters are S, M, A, R, and T, arranged from top to bottom. Each letter is in a different color: S is pink, M is yellow, A is green, R is purple, and T is blue. The boxes are connected by a vertical line. The main area of the frame is empty, intended for a poster about internet safety.
