

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

The procecian/procetion/procession snaked its way to the tomb.

There was tension/tention/tencian in the air. Beth was keen to put her plan into action/actsion/accian.

2. Fill each gap with a pronoun.

Aye had thought that ____ was in charge of the kingdom, but his plan had failed and now ____ was trapped inside a tomb.

3. Add an adverbial to the sentence below to express how time is passing.

_____, the procession of camels and soldiers arrived outside the tomb.

4. Rewrite the following sentence using direct speech.

Beth said that she had a better plan than Scarab.

5. Look at the sentences below. Put a circle around the correct form of the verb so that it is grammatically correct.
- a) They have rided/ridden/rid their camels a long way.
 - b) The children have not been ate/eated/eaten by crocodiles.
 - c) Tut has chosen/chose/choosed not to be a king anymore.