

Open-Ended Questions

1. Look at the paragraph beginning: Jess was pretty cross...
Why did the children believe that their wish for never-ending wishes had been granted?
2. Look at the paragraph beginning: His voice was...
How can you tell that the children were engrossed by the wish?
3. After listening to Frisk speak, why did Jess feel disappointed?
4. The children had used the box many times. Give two reasons why they hadn't noticed the note before.
5. The twins didn't even notice that the wish had finished and Frisk was back to normal; something new and equally exciting was happening.
Why were the twins distracted?