Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

   Joe prefered/preferred to eat the jelly sweets rather than the hard ones. They stuffed their faces without even thinking about transfering/transferring any of the sweets into bags. Joe was suffering/sufferring from overeating; he could no longer support his own body weight.

2. What is the word class of the underlined word in the sentence below?

   The twins shoved the sweets straight into their mouths.

	Tick one.
conjunction adverb adjective
preposition

3. Insert a dash in the sentence below to mark the boundary between the two clauses.

   The twins didn't have time to check on their dog they were too busy scoffing handfuls of sweets.

4. Which sentence contains a relative clause?

	Tick one.
Jess devoured the sweets with the same ferocity as her brother and Frisk.
Joe sprawled out on top of the sweets.
He was slithering about like a worm, using his mouth to gobble up his favourites.
Jess leant back and looked over at their bedroom door, which opened inwards into the room.

5. Insert a pair of commas in the correct place in the sentence below.

Joe who was often impulsive grabbed the box and made another wish.