

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. A considerable/considerible amount of money showered down into the room. Joe and Jess began to feel that anything was possable/possible. Even Frisk found the fluttering banknotes enjoyable/enjoyible.
2. Rewrite the underlined verbs in the sentence below so that they are in the past perfect form.

The twins threw the money into the air and made plans.

3. Write a noun phrase containing at least three words to complete the sentence below. Remember to punctuate your answer correctly.

_____ were planning how to spend their money.

4. Write an adverbial of time to complete the sentence below. Remember to punctuate your answer correctly.

_____ hundreds of banknotes twirled through the air and filled the room.

5. Write a sentence that lists all the information given in the box below. Remember to punctuate your answer correctly.

Shopping list

a mansion with a pool

a chocolate factory

a plane

a field of bunny rabbits
