

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct spellings to complete the sentences.

Jess and Joe hadn't been very observant/observent when they had first opened the box; they hadn't seen the note. The writing was small, but with a decant/decent magnifying glass, Jess felt confidant/confident that she would be able to read the words.

2. Tick one box in each row to indicate whether the sentence is in the past simple or the past perfect.

Sentence	Past simple	Past perfect
On the other hand, they had been granted everything they'd asked for until now.
Jess glanced around the bedroom for inspiration.
This made Frisk bark out his next word as he trotted towards them.

3. Which sentence shows that the twins are most likely to have their next wish granted?

Tick one.

Their wish could come true.

☐

Their wish might come true.

☐

Their wish shall come true.

☐

Their wish may come true.

☐

4. Which sentences are written in Standard English?

Tick two.

Frisk didn't really say nothing interesting.

"Humans," Frisk said, and this time it was Joe who laughed.

Frisk barked out his next word as he trotted towards them.

Jess shook her head at Joe, and continued "I thought he might have a bit more to say."

5. Insert a semicolon in the correct place in the sentence below.

Jess felt disappointed with Frisk's speaking ability she had thought he would have much more to say.