

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

The twins wanted their last wish to be special/spetial. It was essencial/essential to make a wish where it didn't matter about it running out after seven minutes. After an inicial/initial shaky start, the children were enjoying the thrill of flying.

2. Tick the option that shows how the underlined words are used in the sentence.

"We got seven wishes, not three, that's the quantity bit," she explained to Joe, who still looked a bit lost.

Tick one.

as a preposition phrase

as a relative clause

as a main clause

as a noun phrase

3. Underline the modal verb in the sentence below.

"We should set the timer," she explained.

4. Rewrite the sentence below, adding a subordinate clause.
Remember to punctuate your answer correctly.

The children flew around the room.

5. Explain why a colon has been used in the sentence below.

She could feel it everywhere: in each of her hair follicles, in every skin cell, throughout the very soul of her being.
