

Open-Ended Questions

1. What did the hieroglyph of the finger on the lips mean?
2. Beth thought that Uncle Aye must have written the hieroglyphs. Why did she think this? Give two reasons.
3. It didn't take the children long to clamber out of the tomb.

Find and copy a phrase in the story to prove that this statement is true.

4. Beth, Scarab and King Tut grinned like people who were very, very pleased with themselves.

Rewrite the simile above so that the sentence still has the same meaning.

5. "Tomb robbers, eh?" said the captain of the camel army in an extremely unfriendly manner. "You've just made my day. It's the crocodiles for you!"

Why do you think that the captain thought the children were tomb robbers?